Boston Butts

Remember to bring your tickets and money today.

Lion Monty needs us to get it together so he can ready for the cooking.

Let's help him help us.

Poet and Author Jackie Arnell Duncan

If you missed today's meeting you missed a real treat.

Author of the newly released "Living on Purpose: The Poetry of Life " , Jackie Duncan, gave us selected readings from his book.

His writing is very inspiring, uplifting, and straight from the heart.

You can... And should get his new book on Amazon or track him down in person via Lion Marilyn Morris who provided this great program.
